Lourdes High School

Shown above is a portion of the south side and main entrance of Lourdes, a central Catholic high school for all pupils of St. John's and St. Francis parishes. The school which accommodates junior and senior high school students has been in use since January, 1942.

The building, which is of Tudor Gothic type of architecture, is of buff and gray Mankato stone.

Foreword

In this, the first issue of the LOURDIAN, we attempt to put into one volume remembrances of our school days at Lourdes.

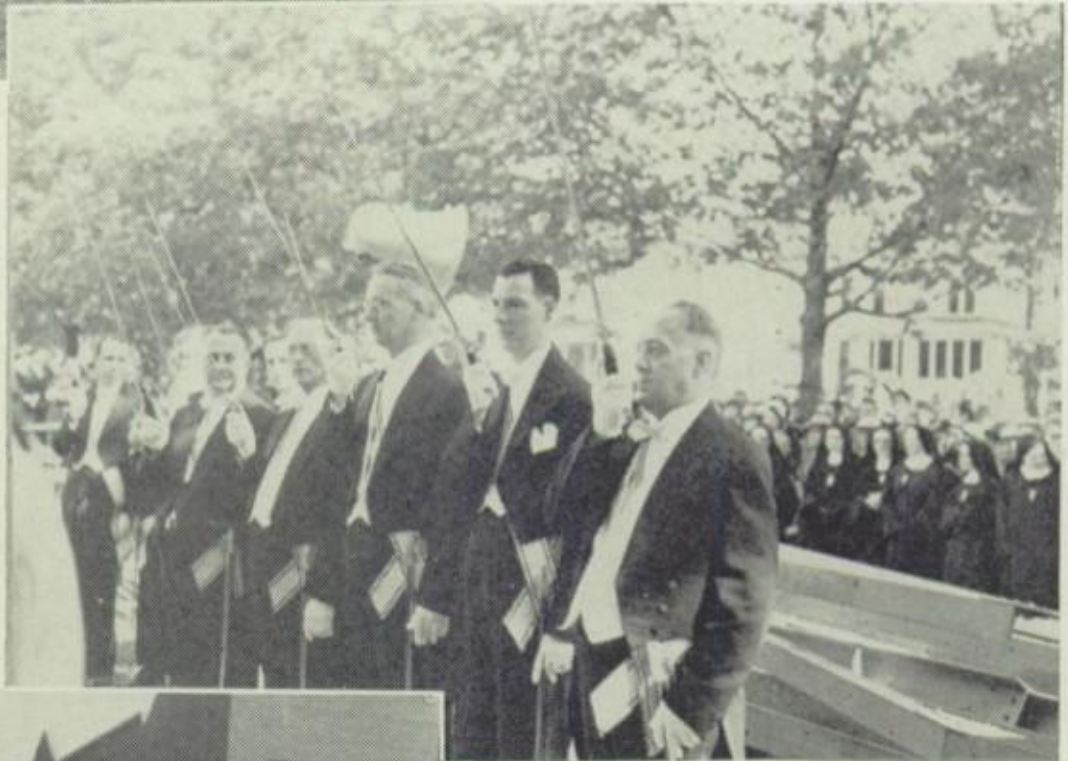

The Catholic ideals and principles instilled into our minds, together with the inspiration and encouragement of our instructors, give us courage to face the life before us through the help of Our Lady of Lourdes, Patroness of our school. We shall continue to live up to the expectation of our pastors, our parents, and our teachers as we remain faithful to God and America.

Father Perrizo assumed the duty of executive head of St. John's Grade School and Lourdes High School in April of 1943.

Besides attending to the daily routine business, it is Father Perrizo's task to determine the general policies for the control, maintenance and expansion of the Catholic school system in Rochester.

Lourdes High School has recently been affiliated with the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools which aims "to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in the students of American secondary schools."

To be eligible, a student, besides maintaining an average of 90 or above, must be judged deserving of this honor by his service, leadership, and sterling character.

C. S. M. C. OFFICERS

STANDING—JUNIOR UNIT—Joseph Weis, Donna McDonough, Nicholas Gores.

* No organization at Lourdes High School has shown a finer spirit of cooperation, self sacrifice, and continual growth of interest than the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade. May not the many blessings that have come to the student body be a manifestation of God's approval of this mission spirit.

Both Lourdes units have participated in the threefold missionary action requisite; namely, prayer for the missions, study of the missions, and the support of the missions in the spirit of sacrifice and devotion.

SEATED—The Reverend J. F. Corcoran, Miss Bernice O'Shaughnessy, president; Miss Evelyne Collins, vice-president; Geraldine Ellstrom, Mary Lou Fogarty, Eileen Macken, Marie Wiltgen, Jean Hovald, treasurer; and Elizabeth Vail.

The Junior Legion of Mary was started in St. John's Parish in the spring of 1944. The praesidium of Our Lady of Lourdes has fifteen members with the Reverend J. F. Corcoran as the spiritual director and Miss Bernice O'Shaughnessy, the president.

The object of the Junior Legion of Mary is to prepare high school students for the Senior Legion of Mary. The members sanctify themselves by prayer and active co-operation under the guidance of the Church. It helps Mary and the Church to crush the serpent's head, and spread the faith of Christ.

ROCHESTER CATHOLIC STUDENTS — WINNERS OF SIXTH WAR LOAN DRIVE

Lourdes students won four firsts out of six.

SITTING—Mary Gentling, Margaret Kennedy, Daniel Macken, Frances Timmons, Richard Wilson, Eunice Bucher, Loren Marquardt, Bernadelle Schrom, John Joyce, Regina Stellpflug, Mary Seiz.

"The Eagle," Lourdes regular publication, is a twenty-four page mimeographed work of the magazine-newspaper type. It features the activities and achievements of the school, together with the best creative literary work done by the student body.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION AT LOURDES

LOURDES BAND

STANDING—Mary Lou Just, Lavonne Hennessey, Noreen Springer, Paul Hennessey, Daniel Macken, William Murphy, Mr. Vincent Kling, Ralph Kuisle, Doris Hille, Lorraine Hennessey, Dennisine Fordham, Patrick O'Shaughnessy, Paul Thierry, Patrick Doyle,
 SEATED—Joanne Koenig, Julia Drosos, Ancille Fordham, Jeann Clappier, Richard Hauser, Richard Thierry, Maurice Blake, Richard Ferber.

Since it was organized five years ago by Mr. Daniel Connor, the Lourdes High School Band has made definite progress. This year the band has practiced diligently under Mr. Kling's direction every Tuesday and Friday, and at noon on other school days under student direction.

To enable the public to realize the progress made, the band played for "pep fests" and basketball games, and traveled to the Catholic Regional High School Basketball Tournament held at Austin.

GIRLS' CHORAL CLUB

The annual operetta, which climaxes the musical achievement of the year, is produced by a group of one hundred to one hundred and fifty students, chosen largely from the two choral groups pictured in the "Lourdian."

Both solo and ensemble numbers have been rendered with a professional finish at each performance.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

At the piano: Richard Madden.

The boys' glee club at Lourdes has demonstrated to the Rochester public what can be achieved with good talent and fine training.

The singing of the Prophecies in "The Pageant of the Nativity," the solo numbers and boys' choruses in "The Forest Prince," and the High Mass on Baccalaureate Sunday showed excellent work.

THE OFF-BEATS

Early in the fall of 1944 the nucleus of the "Off Beat" Orchestra came into existence. In the beginning there were three members and one orchestration; later as more members were acquired and new instruments were added, it evolved into a musical sextet which practices regularly several evenings a week.

This orchestra is unique in as much as it was formed by the initiative of its members and developed by their ingenuity and ability without any outside help except the financial aid that Father Perizzo offered in its early history.

The "Off Beats" have played at various school functions and private parties of Lourdes pupils.

THE ST. JOHN'S KNIGHTS OF THE ALTAR

The St. John's Knights of the Altar is a group of some ninety boys from St. John's Parish who serve at all religious functions held at St. John's Church, the Convent Chapel, and Lourdes Chapel.

The officers are, according to the by-laws, elected from the Senior Servers of the Lourdes' Unit, pictured above, in recognition of their years of service in the organization.

The Knights of the Altar hold monthly meetings at which they have guest speakers or demonstrate serving properly for various religious ceremonies. Following this there is always a social hour with refreshments and amusement.

St. Francis Servers pictured here are under the direction of Father Michael Kuisle.

Right to Left—Regina Lawler, first place winner, and Irene Majerus, second place winner, in the annual essay contest sponsored by the Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Their essays, "What Americanism Means to Me," were entered in the State Contest.

Right—Taking the Scout Oath

LIBRARY

Imposing in the extreme is Lourdes school library with its high vaulted ceiling, its beautiful stained glass window of triple lancet style, its exquisite hand carved crucifix. The simplicity, durability and beauty of the library furniture is in keeping with the semi-religious design of the room. The high windows with venetian blinds and lovely brocade drapes, and the highly polished rubber tile floor are features in line with the quiet, dignified tone of the place.

A TYPICAL CLASSROOM

In the above picture is shown a typical classroom, one of the junior high home rooms. Throughout the entire building there are tall windows, with Venetian blinds, permitting an abundance of light at all times.

For pleasing contrast the walls of the different classrooms are tinted in various shades, while the desks vary from the universal, as here shown, to tables.

Each room is provided with electric clock, telephone, loud speaker and individual thermostatic control.

The junior high class rooms are located on the first floor; the senior high class rooms are mainly on the third floor.

The science laboratories, lecture room, library, and home economics rooms are used by both groups.

FOR GOD AND COUNTRY

The boys and girls pictured above are some of the junior high school pupils who have been most active in the paper salvage drive during the past year, collecting in all thirty-one tons.

These pupils, with a high school student driving the truck, collected paper week after week in all kinds of weather.

Since the money obtained was turned over for the mission cause, this hard working group performed not only a patriotic duty by salvaging the paper, but did a fine work in the spreading of the Kingdom of Christ.

FOOTBALL

The 1944 Eagle Gridsters were slow in starting this past season. The Navy picked off two lettermen before the season got under way and lack of experience held the team back the first half of the season. However, despite the slow start, the Eagles ended the season with a flashy comeback. The high point of the season came when underdog Purple and Gold defeated a powerful Shattuck team.

This year's offense featured the running of Robert Miller, Robert Brennan and Richard Kiley, with passing by Richard Shandley and Bob Felten to Loren Marquardt, Gordon Ryan and Lynn Tracy. The plunging and blocking assignments fell on James Drexler. This was the first year for Coach Chase's T formation at Lourdes and in all prospects the gridsters did a fine job.

The 1945 Lourdes Baseball Team faced a number of handicaps. Without experienced players, with poor playing weather and a fairly stiff schedule, they lost five games without winning one. However, the players kept up their spirit and determination to do their best.

A definite improvement was shown by the time of their final game and it is hoped that this year's errors and experience will aid future teams.

BACCALAUREATE GROUP

AT SAINT FRANCIS CHURCH

Baccalaureate services and commencement exercises are held in alternate years at St. John's Church and St. Francis Church respectively. Above is shown the group of Catholic graduates of Rochester in procession on Baccalaureate Sunday, June 4, 1944.

The baccalaureate sermon is given at the Sunday Mass for the graduates during which the entire group receives Holy Communion.

In the evening of the same day the commencement exercises take place. These include the address to the graduates, the presentation of the diplomas, the awarding of the scholarships, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

For the annual May crowning and for the baccalaureate and commencement exercises Lourdes graduates wear the blue and white caps and gowns in honor of Our Blessed Lady.

Third Degree Knights

Left to right—

Mr. Joseph Flynn

Mr. Mark Wilson

Mr. Emmett Hand

The Knights of Columbus of Rochester have been most generous to Lourdes. They donated the beautiful stained glass window in the library.

The Fourth Degree Knights present yearly to Lourdes students two $125 cash scholarships.

The Third Degree Knights, by their generous donation, helped to make the "Lourdian" the fine publication it is.

LOURDES BOOSTER CLUB OFFICERS

Standing—Mr. William Hennessey, Transportation Manager
Mr. Steve Flynn, Athletic Activities
Mr. Joseph Flynn, Entertainment

Seated—Mr. George Leiferman, Vice President

Mr. Reuben Shearer, Treasurer

LOURDES BOOSTER CLUB

Lourdes school is greatly indebted to the Booster Club which was organized in 1942 and now has a membership of over 300.

The Lourdes Booster Club raises money for school activities and sponsors the downtown Quarterback Luncheons. The Booster Club sells tickets at games, takes care of transportation and of the advertising. The club helps to put on the homecoming celebration and finances the annual activity banquet at Lourdes. This organization promotes the Booster Club stag-party. Above all, the club is a booster for Lourdes at all times.
